

Call for Nominations Editor-In-Chief ACM Transactions on Software Engineering and Methodologies

The term of the current Editor-in-Chief (EiC) of the Transactions on Software Engineering and Methodology (TOSEM) is coming to an end, and the ACM Publications Board has set up a nominating committee to assist the Board in selecting the next EiC. As it enters its 28th year of publication as one of the top journals in the field of software engineering, TOSEM's over 400 published papers, which have been cited more than 10,000 times, include many dozens of highly influential results. The community seeks an EiC who will build on this track record of success to enhance the value of TOSEM to the software engineering research community.

Nominations, including self nominations, are invited for a three-year term as TOSEM EiC, beginning on January 1, 2019. The EiC appointment may be renewed at most one time. This is an entirely voluntary position, but ACM will provide appropriate administrative support.

Appointed by the ACM Publications Board, Editors-in-Chief (EiCs) of ACM journals are delegated full responsibility for the editorial management of the journal consistent with the journal's charter and general ACM policies. The Board relies on EiCs to ensure that the content of the journal is of high quality and that the editorial review process is both timely and fair. He/she has final say on acceptance of papers, size of the Editorial Board, and appointment of Associate Editors. A complete list of responsibilities is found in the ACM Volunteer Editors Position Descriptions. Additional information can be found in the following documents:

- Rights and Responsibilities in ACM Publishing
- ACM's Evaluation Criteria for Editors-in-Chief

Nominations should include a vita along with a brief statement of why the nominee should be considered. Self-nominations are encouraged, and should include a statement of the candidate's vision for the future development of TOSEM. The deadline for submitting nominations is September 9, 2018.

All nominations shall be sent to the nominating committee chair, Paola Inverardi. Please do not hesitate to also contact her for any informal enquiries.
